Today the 5th of March, we celebrated the magic of stories and the joy of reading! From colourful picture books to exciting adventures, books open the door to imagination, learning, and creativity.

Our little learners had a wonderful time exploring stories, characters, and the love of books. Because every great reader starts with a small story and a big imagination!

Little Gardeners at Work!

Our kindergarten has been refreshed to create a brighter, more inspiring space for our little learners! Along with the new look, children will now have the wonderful opportunity to water, care for, and watch our plants grow, helping them learn about nature, responsibility, and patience.

We look forward to seeing our little ones learn, explore, and grow alongside our garden!

Today we celebrate the beautiful hearts, gentle strength, and endless love of women everywhere. From the caring mothers to the inspiring teachers, you make the world brighter and the future stronger every day. Thank you for all the love you give!
